Highly specialist clinical psychologist and author
Dr Karen Treisman confirmed as keynote speaker!

As part of this new exciting CAWT cross border project, which aims to transform the lives of 3,125 vulnerable children/families who are most at risk from multiple adversities in their lives, by identifying, intervening early and providing nurturing and support within their own homes and communities on a cross border basis, we are delighted to announce our inaugural

Cross Border Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) conference

on Friday 28th September 2018,
from 10.00am to 4.00pm,
in the Millennium Forum, Derry City

The overarching theme of this conference is hope and resilience and will focus on building resilient ACE aware & trauma informed communities.

Our new cross border EU INTERREG VA funded MACE project will be launched on the morning of the event.

Note: Places at this conference will be limited and demand will be high so register now to secure your place. This event is free to attend.

Please complete separate registration form by 10th August 2018 and send to Fiona Lafferty at fiona.lafferty@westerntrust.hscni.net (0044 (0) 28 71272100)

A project supported by the European Union's INTERREG VA Programme, managed by the Special EU Programmes Body.
